American Legion Department Convention 2025 Announcement

Mark your calendars for the 2025 American Legion Department Convention, set to take place this June! This year's convention is packed with exciting events, valuable training opportunities, and new activities to enhance the experience for all attendees.

Key Highlights:

- Golf Scramble – Saturday, June 21st: Join us for a fun and competitive golf scramble to kick off the convention. Gather your team and enjoy a great day on the greens!
- ALA National President's Visit: We are honored to welcome the National President to this year's convention. Don't miss this opportunity to hear from her during our Joint Banquet on Saturday night. 6/21
- New Training Breakout Sessions – Beginning Thursday, June 19th: This year, we are introducing training breakout sessions to provide valuable education and certification opportunities. These include:
 - Funeral Honors Certification: A required training for all Veterans Service Organizations offering Honor Guard services.
 - State Gambling and Liquor Control Division Presentation: A must-attend session for all members, whether your post has a bar or conducts raffles, to ensure compliance with state regulations.
 - Membership Training: A special training session focused on strengthening membership efforts, held during our new Membership Breakfast.
 - 'Be the One' Presentations: Integrated into our Americanism Luncheon, these presentations will focus on mental health and suicide prevention efforts within the veteran community.
- Potential Thursday Night Cookoff: Stay tuned for more details on a possible cookoff event to kick off the convention in a fun and delicious way!

More details and registration forms will be available soon. Make plans to attend and be part of this impactful gathering. We look forward to seeing you there!
